

Journal Page

Journal

Describe what a good and perfect King is like. What do you think Jesus' perfect kingdom will be like?

- 1. What does this story teach me about God or the gospel?
- 2. What does this story teach me about myself?
- 3. Are there any commands in this story to obey? How are they for God's glory and my good?
- 4. Are there any promises in this story to remember? How do they help me trust and love God?
- 5. How does this story help me to live on mission better?

Anticipating the Coming King

Isaiah 11:1-10

MAIN POINT: ISAIAH PROPHESED ABOUT THE COMING MESSIAH.

The people of Judah were afraid. Their king, Uzziah, had died. Now they had a bad king and their enemies, the Assyrians, threatened to destroy them. God sent Isaiah the prophet to give the people a message of hope.

Isaiah told people about God's plan. A King is coming!

"The King will come from Jesse's family," Isaiah said. Jesse was King David's father. God was going to keep His promise that someone from David's family would be King forever.

Isaiah said, "God's Spirit will be with Him. He will be wise and understanding."

Isaiah said that the coming King will always do the right thing.

Isaiah said that the Messiah will bring peace.

Everyone on the earth will know the Lord. The earth will be filled with knowledge of Him, just like the sea is filled with water.

In the future, this King will bring the nations together. All the people will come to Him, and He will rule in glory.

Christ Connection: Isaiah and many other prophets in the Old Testament told about a King who would come and rule forever. Jesus is the promised Messiah. He will make all these words come true.

Key Passage: Matthew 1:21

"She will bear a son, and you shall call his name Jesus, for he will save his people from their sins."

My child has completed the Christ Connection on his/her own and has discussed it with me:

Parent Signature: _____