PETER HEALED A MAN

Acts 3

WHY DOES GOD COMMAND CHRISTIANS TO TELL OTHERS ABOUT JESUS? WE TELL OTHERS ABOUT JESUS SO THEY WILL HEAR AND BELIEVE THE GOOD NEWS.

One afternoon, two of Jesus' followers—Peter and John—went to the temple to pray. They saw a man sitting by the temple gate called Beautiful. Every day, the man's friends carried him to the temple because the man could not walk. As people entered the temple, the man asked them for money since he couldn't work.

When the man saw Peter and John, he asked them for money. The man looked at Peter and John, expecting them to give him something.

Peter said, "I don't have any silver or gold for you, but I will give you what I do have." Then Peter said, "In the name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth, get up and walk!"

All of a sudden, the man's feet and ankles were strong. He could walk! In fact, the man jumped and leaped around! He went into the temple, and he praised God. The people in the temple saw that the man was healed, and they were filled with awe at what had happened to him.

Christ Connection: After Jesus returned to heaven, the Holy Spirit gave the disciples power to begin working. With the power of Jesus' name, Peter healed a man who was lame. Peter and John showed God's power and pointed to a greater, spiritual healing found in Jesus.

My child has completed the Christ Connection on his/her own and has discussed it with me:
